

Encourage Patient Enrollment in CurrentCare

Neighborhood News – April 2023

CurrentCare® is operated on behalf of Rhode Island’s healthcare community by the Rhode Island Quality Institute (RIQI). Information is gathered from multiple sources (physicians, specialists, labs, medications, etc.) and stored on a secure network and in a secure online tool.

Encourage Patient Enrollment in CurrentCare® Today!

The sooner your patients enroll in CurrentCare, the sooner they – and you – can begin to appreciate its many benefits. To turn this goal into reality, involve your staff in mentioning the value of CurrentCare to your patients.

To get started, email a CurrentCare Enrollment Specialist at CurrentCare@riqi.org or call 888-858-4815.

Forms:

- CurrentCare & CurrentCare for Me Enrollment Form \(English\) (PDF)
- CurrentCare & CurrentCare for Me Enrollment Form \(Spanish\) (PDF)
- CurrentCare & CurrentCare for Me Enrollment Form \(Portuguese\) (PDF)
- CurrentCare for Me Designee Form \(English\) (PDF)
- CurrentCare for Me Designee Form \(Spanish\) (PDF)
- Online Enrollment Website
- Provider Cancellation Form

CurrentCare is operated on behalf of Rhode Island’s healthcare community by the Rhode Island Quality Institute. Rhode Island state law protects the rights of all participants in CurrentCare. The Rhode Island Health Information Exchange Act of 2008 contains a number of important privacy and data security protections for Rhode Island consumers enrolled in CurrentCare. For more information, please read the full text of the Act.

Source: <https://riqi.org/solutions/health-information-exchange/currentcare/>